INSIDE THE ATOLL

The Atoll is a chaos of gunfire and flying Jet Skiers and desperate Atollers. Your eyes are immediately drawn to three scenes:

To the left, a Smoker with a Gatling Gun is firing indiscriminately at everything in his path.

Directly ahead of you, a woman grapples with two Smokers. You catch a glimpse of her face.

Could it really be Helen, the Mariner's legendary companion?

To the right, two Smoker jet skiers seem to be toying with something in the water.
